I wonder whether it is really necessary to close all these jatras which are also cattle fairs Ryots must have some facilities for the sale of cattle which they have raised for sale - I should like to discuss this with the Director and if possible with the Rev. Commr. also.

CIRCULAR.

G 8810-19 & 17.2.31.

In continuation of Circular No. G 8579-30 Lands/21-30-11G dated 18th July 1931, District Magistrates and other officers concerned are informed that the reported prevalence of an epidemic in places at some considerable distance from a proposed Jatra should not be regarded as constituting a sufficient reason for recommending its prohibition, particularly in cases where an important cattle fair is held in connection with the Jatra. About two weeks before the Jatra, the conditions prevailing at the place of the Jatra and its immediate neighbourhood (which may roughly be taken as the country around within a radius of 30 miles) should be carefully studied and if there are no signs of active or recent infection therein, the arrangements for the Jatra ~~should~~ may ordinarily be allowed to proceed ~~without interference~~. Even if a few places in the neighbourhood, as explained above, are found to be infected, it is for the responsible local officers to consider whether, instead of prohibiting the Jatra and Cattle Fair, it would not be ~~sufficient and~~ feasible and sufficient to prevent persons from the infected parts resorting to the Jatra. At the place where the Jatre is to be held, all possible precautions should be taken to prevent the outbreak and spread of the epidemic. No unnecessary risks should, of course be taken in matters concerning public health, the interests of which must be regarded as paramount. At the same time, however, the stoppage of an important cattle fair involves serious economic loss to the rural population and should be recommended only if, on a detailed survey of the local conditions the adoption of such a course is found to be clearly necessary for the protection of the public.

(about two days' march)

Where it is decided to prohibit a Jatra the decision should be notified to the people of the locality concerned at least a week before hand, pending the issue of Government orders which (as explained in the ~~earlier~~ circular already quoted), should be applied for in good time.
